Ohio	7/17/2024	Ohio Residential Construction Advisory Committee Meeting July 17th Summary
During the Ohio Residential Construction Advisory Committee meeting on July 17th, changes to 2024 IRC Chapters 4-8 were presented and accepted unanimously after discussions, with draft rule preparations to address noted items. Recommendations were made to adopt selected IRC appendices for alternative construction standards, like tiny homes, and IRC plumbing chapters as an alternative compliance path, with no opposition from the committee. It was also highlighted that the Federal Housing Administration (FHA) will require compliance with the 2021 International Energy Conservation Code (IECC) for mortgage funding, indicating its significant role in future residential construction standards.
