California	9/16/2024	California Energy Commission Adopts 2025 Building Standards to Boost Heat Pumps, Energy Efficiency, and Cut Emissions
The California Energy Commission has adopted the 2025 Building Energy Efficiency Standards, which focus on increasing the use of heat pumps, establishing electric-ready requirements, and updating solar and ventilation standards. The new code, projected to save $4.8 billion in energy costs and reduce greenhouse gas emissions by 4 million metric tons, aims to make buildings more energy-efficient and climate-resilient. If approved in December 2024, the standards will take effect on January 1, 2026.

NC SB 166

Title: 2024 Bldg. Code Regulatory Reform.

Current Status: Passed

Introduction Date: February 27, 2023

Last Action Date: Ch. SL 2024-49. September 11, 2024

Summary: This bill amends various North Carolina building codes and reorganizes the Building Code Council. It provides that a political subdivision shall not adopt local fire prevention code provisions which apply to dwellings subject to the North Carolina Residential Code which are not prescriptively required by the North Carolina Residential Code. The bill additionally decreases the membership of the Building Code Council from 17 to 13 with certain positions being appointed by the General Assembly instead of the Governor.

CA SB 1152

Title: State Fire Marshal: fire safety: regulations: lithium-based battery systems: telecommunications infrastructure.

Current Status: Considering

Introduction Date: February 14, 2024

Last Action Date: Enrolled and presented to the Governor at 3 p.m.. September 09, 2024

Summary: This bill focuses on fire safety regulations for lithium-ion batteries in California. The bill requires the State Fire Marshal to propose updates to the fire standards for lead-acid and nickel-cadmium battery systems to also include identical requirements for lithium-ion batteries. These updates must be proposed before the next triennial edition of the California Building Standards Code adopted after January 1, 2025. The Legislature intends that no additional requirements, beyond those described in the bill, are included in the updated battery requirement regulations.
